

FP WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

7.13.20-7.17.20

On This Day In History

WEATHER FOR THE WEEK:

MONDAY:
HIGH OF 82
LIGHT RAIN

TUESDAY:
HIGH OF 88
PARTLY SUN-
NY

WEDNESDAY:
HIGH OF 83
LIGHT RAIN

THURSDAY:
HIGH OF 83
PARTLY SUN-NY

FRIDAY:
HIGH OF 85
PARTLY SUN-
NY

Interested in Writing
For the FP Weekly
Newsletter?

Contact Garrett

SUBMISSION IDEAS:

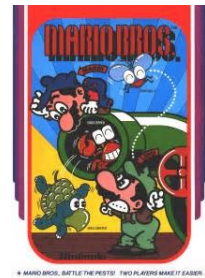

- ◆ Weekly Polls
- ◆ History
- ◆ Interesting Facts
- ◆ Poetry
- ◆ Unique Holidays

July 13

- In the year of 1832, the source of the Mississippi River was discovered by American geographer Henry Schoolcraft.
- 1954—Frida Kahlo, a famous Mexican painter, died on this day due to pulmonary embolism.

July 14

- In 1983, Mario Bros. is first released by Nintendo in Japan as an arcade game about an Italian-American plumber.
- In 2008, "The Dark Knight" directed by Christopher Nolan, starring Christian Bale and Heath Ledger, premieres in New York.

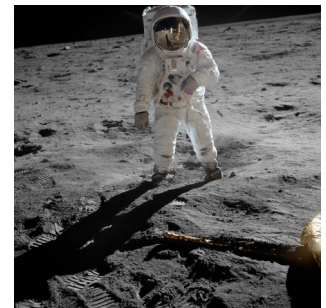

July 15

- 1948—Alcoholics Anonymous was founded in Britain.
- "Honky Chateau" becomes Elton John's first No. 1 album in the US, includes hit "Rocket Man" in 1972.

July 16

- In 1969, Apollo 11 launched, carrying the first men to land on Moon.
- In 2004, Martha Stewart is sentenced to five months in prison plus five months in home confinement for lying to federal investigators.

July 17

- 1879—the first railroad opens in Hawaii.
- In the year of 1954, construction of Disneyland commences.

Weekly Activities

Monday: Walk for Fitness 10:00 AM

Tuesday: Group with Garrett 9:30—11:00 AM

Wednesday: National Gummy Worm Day—Fun Treat at 1:00 PM

Thursday: Open Discussion "Trust & Disclosure" 10:00 AM

Friday: Swingball 10:30 AM

The National Enquirer,
According to Jenn

Barb had baked stuffed peppers at the church. She actually liked them and went back for seconds.

Bradley won a coloring contest and won a trip to Disney World.

Friendship Place purchased its 43rd set of Play Nine because it was played so much.

